

Christine Leibbrand

Department of Sociology
University of Washington
216A Savery Hall, Box 353340
425-647-5101
Seattle, WA 98195-3340

9521 116th Ave. NE
Kirkland, WA 98033
cleibb@uw.edu
425-647-5101
United States Citizen

EDUCATION

Graduate Student, Department of Sociology, University of Washington, Fall 2013 - present

Ph.D., Sociology; University of Washington; Seattle, WA; anticipated Spring 2019
Comprehensive Exam: Migration, Mobility, and Stratification; passed with distinction October 2016
Committee: Stewart Tolnay, Kyle Crowder, Hedy Lee, and Sarah Quinn

M.A., Sociology; University of Washington; Seattle, WA; May 2015
Thesis: Parental Nonstandard Work Schedules and Child Behavioral Outcomes.
Committee: Julie Brines and Stewart Tolnay

B.A., Environmental Studies-Economics and Sociology; Whitman College; Walla Walla, WA; May 2013
Magna Cum Laude
Thesis: The Persistence of Community: The Impact of Jewish Philanthropy
Committee: Gilbert Mireles, Helen Kim, and Jesse Abrams

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Demography, Internal U.S. Migration, Residential Mobility, Race/Ethnicity, Socioeconomic Outcomes, Gender, Family Studies, Work and Family, Statistics, and Research Methods

HONORS AND AWARDS

Harry Bridges Center for Labor Studies "Best Graduate Paper in Labor Studies Prize," awarded Summer 2016

Concentration in Social Statistics, awarded Spring 2016

Harry Bridges Center for Labor Studies Research Grant, $2,500 award for travel and research-supporting activities

Center for Studies in Demography and Ecology (CSDE) Methods Certificate Program, accepted Fall 2014

Certificate of Recognition, Sociology Honor Society Alpha Kappa Delta, Pacific Sociological Association, 2013

Order of Waiilatpu, award for academic excellence and community involvement, Whitman College, 2013

PRESENTATIONS

Crowder, Kyle and Christine Leibbrand. September 2017. "The legacy of the PSID in understanding patterns of migration and residential mobility." PSID User Conference.

Leibbrand, Christine. August 2017. "The Relationship between U.S. Internal Migration and Income by Race and Gender." American Sociological Association: Montreal, Canada.

Leibbrand, Christine, Erin Carll, Angela Bruns, and Hedy Lee. August 2017. "Paternal Incarceration and Family Neighborhood Outcomes." American Sociological Association: Montreal, Canada.

Gabriel, Ryan, Chris Hess, Christine Leibbrand, and Kyle Crowder. August 2017. "Hypersegregation and Affluence in the United States." American Sociological Association: Montreal, Canada.

Leibbrand, Christine, Catherine Massey, Stew Tolnay, and J. Trent Alexander. April 2017. "Return Migration to the U.S. South." Population Association of America Conference: Chicago, IL.

Leibbrand, Christine. August 2016. "Nonstandard Work Schedules, Gender, and Parental Involvement: The Influence of the 24/7 Economy on Child Academic Outcomes." American Sociological Association: Seattle, WA.

Alexander, J. Trent, Christine Leibbrand, Catherine Massey, and Stew Tolnay. August 2016. "Second Generation Outcomes of the Great Migration." American Sociological Association: Seattle, WA.

Leibbrand, Christine. March 2016. "Nonstandard Work Schedules, Gender, and Parental Involvement: The Influence of the 24/7 Economy on Child Academic Outcomes." University of Washington Graduate Student Research Symposium: Seattle, WA.

Leibbrand, Christine. May 2015. "Parental Nonstandard Work Schedules and Child Behavioral Outcomes: The Salience of Mother and Father Involvement and Closeness." Population Association of America Conference: San Diego, CA.

Leibbrand, Christine. March 2015. "Parental Nonstandard Work Schedules and Child Behavioral Outcomes: The Salience of Mother and Father Involvement and Closeness." University of Washington Graduate Student Research Symposium: Seattle, WA.

Leibbrand, Christine. March 2014. "The Effect of Non-Standard Schedules on the Division of Household Labor and Childcare among Married Couples." University of Washington Graduate Student Research Symposium: Seattle, WA.

Leibbrand, Christine. May 2013. "The Persistence of Community: The Impact of Jewish Philanthropy." Pacific Sociological Association Annual Meeting: Reno, NV.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant; University of Washington; Professor Kyle Crowder; conducted research on residential mobility, segregation, and racial stratification; September 2016 - present

Research Assistant; University of Washington; Professor Stew Tolnay; conducted research on second generation migrant outcomes and the Great Migration and return migration to the U.S. South; Summer 2015 and January 2016 - present

Research Assistant; Whitman College; Professor Michelle Janning; "Whitman College Library Use: An Observational and Survey Assessment of Student Use and Preferences;" 2011-2012

Research Intern; Whitman College Student Engagement Center; conducted research on job availability and undergraduate Career Center practices across comparable colleges and universities; 2009-2013

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Leibbrand, Christine. "Parental Nonstandard Work Schedules and Child Behavioral Outcomes." Under review and resubmit at Journal of Family Issues

Leibbrand, Christine. "The Effect of U.S. Internal Migration on Income by Race and Gender."

Leibbrand, Christine, J. Trent Alexander, Catherine Massey, Stewart Tolnay. "Return Migration to the United States South." Under consideration at Social Forces

Alexander, J. Trent, Christine Leibbrand, Catherine Massey, and Stewart Tolnay. "Second Generation Outcomes of the Great Migration." Under review and resubmit at Demography

Leibbrand, Christine, Erin Carll, Angela Bruns, and Hedy Lee. "Paternal Incarceration and Family Neighborhood Outcomes."

Gabriel, Ryan, Chris Hess, Christine Leibbrand, and Kyle Crowder. "Hypersegregation and Affluence in the United States."

Crowder, Kyle and Christine Leibbrand. "The legacy of the PSID in understanding patterns of migration and residential mobility."

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Reviewed manuscripts for Social Problems and Social Science Quarterly

Representative to the Colloquium Committee for the Graduate Student Association (GSA); September 2015-June 2016

Secretary of the Graduate Student Association; September 2016-present

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant; Department of Sociology; 2013-2015

- SOC 287 Sociology of Sexuality; Fall 2014; Autumn 2015
- SOC 270 Social Problems; Winter 2014 and Spring 2015
- SOC 110 Survey of Sociology; Fall 2013 and Winter 2015
- SOC 316 Sociological Theory; Spring 2014

REFERENCES

Stew Tolnay

S. Frank Miyamoto Professor Sociology

tolnay@uw.edu

Kyle Crowder

Blumstein-Jordon Professor of Sociology

kylecrow@uw.edu