SOC 512 A: REVIEW OF MATHEMATICS FOR SOCIAL SCIENTISTS

- Winter 2015

Meeting Time: Th 12:30pm - 1:20pm
Location: THO 325
SLN: 19467
Instructor: Adrian Raftery

Catalog Description: Reviews basic mathematical skills needed for a meaningful understanding of elementary statistics, data analysis, and social science methodology. Overview of core knowledge required for graduate courses in quantitative methods in social sciences. Topics include discrete mathematics, differential and integral calculus, review of matrix algebra, and basic probabilistic and statistical concepts. Credit/no-credit only.

GE Requirements: Other Requirements Met:
Status: Active
Last updated: April 29, 2016 - 1:28pm