SOC 512 A: REVIEW OF MATHEMATICS FOR SOCIAL SCIENTISTS

- Winter 2016

View in MyPlan
View in Time Schedule
Meeting Time: Th 12:30pm - 1:20pm
Location: THO 125
SLN: 19750
Instructor: Rebecca Ferrell
Catalog Description:
Reviews basic mathematical skills needed for a meaningful understanding of elementary statistics, data analysis, and social science methodology. Overview of core knowledge required for graduate courses in quantitative methods in social sciences. Topics include discrete mathematics, differential and integral calculus, review of matrix algebra, and basic probabilistic and statistical concepts. Credit/no-credit only. Offered: jointly with CS&SS 505.
Status: Active
Last updated: October 17, 2016 - 12:53pm