SOC 360 A: INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL STRATIFICATION

- Autumn 2019

Meeting Time: MW 10:00am - 11:20am
Location: GUG 218
SLN: 21211
Instructor: Peter Catron

Catalog Description:
Social class and social inequality in American society. Status, power, authority, and unequal opportunity are examined in depth, using material from other societies to provide a comparative and historical perspective. Sociological origins of recurrent conflicts involving race, sex, poverty, and political ideology.

GE Requirements:
Diversity (DIV)
Individuals and Societies (I&S)
Writing (W)
Credits: 5.0
Status: Active
Last updated: November 12, 2019 - 9:06pm

Source URL: https://soc.washington.edu/courses/2019/autumn/soc/360/a