HEATHER EVANS SELECTED AS HANAUER GRADUATE FELLOW FOR 2014-15

Submitted by Jerald R Herting on May 12, 2014 - 8:52am

Heather Evans was one of six UW graduate students selected as a Hanauer Graduate Fellow for 2014-15. The Hanauer fellows are provided a supplemental stipend and participate in an interdisciplinary seminar program to foster creative and critical work in the Western cultural tradition. The fellows also help plan a speakers program as part of the seminar. Monies for the program are provided by the Joff Hanauer Endowment for Excellence in Western Civilization.

Congratulations to Heather!

People Involved: Heather D. Evans
News Category: Awards, Graduate Education

Source URL: https://soc.washington.edu/news/2014/05/12/heather-evans-selected-hanauer-graduate-fellow-2014-15