FRAHM AWARDED FULBRIGHT-HAYS DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP

Submitted by Jerald R Herting on October 6, 2014 - 4:04pm

Walker Frahm has won a highly selective and prestigious Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad Fellowship. The award supports research for his dissertation, “Brokers Beyond Borders.” Walker will use expert interviews and field observations to study development organizations assisting orphans and fighting human trafficking in Romania and Moldova, with a particular emphasis on exploring how those organizations function as brokers between foreign donors and local beneficiaries.

People Involved:  Walker Frahm
News Category:  Awards, Graduate Education, Research
Related Fields:  East European, Economic Sociology, Human Rights, Organizations, Sexuality, Victimization