ON THE QUINCENTENNIAL OF LUTHER’S 95 THESES, STEVE PFAFF DISCUSSES HOW LUTHER’S SPIRITUAL PRACTICE HELPED SPREAD THE REFORMATION.

Submitted by Anonymous on October 30, 2017 - 10:57am

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther tacked his 95 theses on the door of the church at Wittenberg Castle. Luther's critique of Catholic theology and practice set off a religious upheaval and lead to the Protestant Reformation. On the 500th anniversary of this defiant act, Professor Steve Pfaff and his co-author Marion Goldman describe how Luther's personal life and spiritual practice played a key role in shaping his message and drawing enthusiastic support from ordinary people. Read more about their argument in The Conversation.

People Involved: Steve Pfaff
News Category: Faculty and Staff, In the Media, Research

Source URL: https://soc.washington.edu/news/2017/10/30/quincentennial-luthers-95-theses-steve-pfaff-discusses-how-luthers-spiritual