12:30pm	Seattle Tours & lunch Tour # 1: The Central District, past & present: Walking tour & restaurant/bar crawl - This tour will showcase the CD, a historically African-American neighborhood that's one of the most complex and vibrant places in Seattle. We'll start with lunch at one of the dozen Ethiopian restaurants down on Cherry St, and wind or bar-hop our way up to Union along 23rd, ending at Chuck's Hop Shop for a round of cider and beer. To keep it sociological, we'll discuss the history and present of segregation and gentrification in Seattle along the way. Led by Connor Gilroy (Cost: bus fare $2.50 + lunch & drinks + optional ice cream?) Tour # 2: Columbia City Culture Crawl: Grubs, pubs, and coffee-hubs are at the very core the graduate student experience. This tour takes these in stride as we survey the contemporary scene and historic commercial district in one of Seattle's most ethnoracially and income diverse neighborhoods. Led by Thiago Marques (Cost: bus fare $2.50 + lunch & drinks)	off campus
