Nepali Migrant Women: Resistance & Survival in America

Spring 2016 Speaker Series

Join us to hear Dr. Shobha Hamal Gurung discuss her newest book, Nepali Migrant Women: Resistance & Survival in America. The book offers powerful ethnographic stories of Nepali women in America who are actively involved in the making of transnational families and communities, who subvert traditional gender roles by engaging in activism to improve working conditions for domestic workers in New York and Boston, and who provide social and economic support to NGOs addressing social justice and human rights. Don’t miss this exciting event!

When: Thursday, May 5, 2016: 5-6:30pm
Where: Thomson 101 – click here for map
Who: Dr. Shoba Hamal Gurung
Associate Professor, Southern Utah University

Questions? email: uwnepal@uw.edu

Sponsored by:

The University of Washington is committed to providing access, equal opportunity, and reasonable accommodations in its services, programs, activities, and employment for individuals with disabilities. To request disability services, please contact the Disability Services Offices at 206-543-6450, or dso@uw.edu