HONORS REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST

The Sociology Honors Program requires a total of 60 credits:

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS
INTRODUCTORY COURSEWORK (10 CREDITS) Any completed 5 credit course in Sociology, and SOC 300: “Foundations of Social Inquiry”	COURSE	QTR/YR
	SOC 300
SOCIAL SCIENCE STATISTICS (5 CREDITS) STAT 220 or STAT 311 may be taken instead of SOC 221.	SOC 221
SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY (5 CREDITS)	SOC 316
We strongly recommend that students complete Statistics and Theory courses BEFORE taking upper division coursework.
HONORS REQUIREMENTS (20 CREDITS) In addition to the above courses, Honors students must complete the following:
HONORS COURSEWORK	COURSE	QTR/YR
	SOC 496	AUT
	SOC 321	AUT
HONORS THESIS	SOC 497	WIN
	SOC 495	SPR
ADDITIONAL SOCIOLOGY ELECTIVES (20 CREDITS) 20 credits of additional SOC courses, at least 10 of which must be numbered above 300.

To graduate with Honors in Sociology, Honors students must have a cumulative 3.50 GPA in UW Sociology and Statistics coursework and a 3.30 overall UW GPA at graduation. They must also successfully complete the Honors Thesis.

Where Honors requirements do not meet or exceed standard degree requirements for the BA in Sociology, Honors students must meet the standard BA requirements. If students do not complete all Honors requirements, Honors coursework will count as upper division credit toward standard BA course requirements.
